

FOUNDERS

MOHAMMED FASIUDDIN B.E., M.S (USA), Chairman

He was born on 28 August, 1976. An Electronics and Communication Engineer from Osmania University (Hyderabad). He went to USA in 1997 to pursue higher education. He completed his Master's in Science (MS) in Computer Engineering from University of Texas (USA).

He started his career at BOSCH as a Systems Engineer. In 2004 he founded 3Core Systems, Inc in Chicago, a software development firm. In his leadership he motivated and trained numerous professionals and shaped their career. While staying in USA his attachment to homeland was never lost, he used to frequently visit India and always had a desire to do something for the community.

In 2009 he left 3Core Systems and relocated to India. As always wanted to redefine the true meaning of education, he established Nawab's International School with Mr. Khaja Munawaruddin, the Principal.

He is known for contemporary ideas blending superbly with conventional wisdom.

His advice to team : The highest reward for a person's toil is not what they get for it, but they become by it. The price of greatness is responsibility. Love what you do. Do what you love. He believes that one cannot escape the responsibility of tomorrow by evading it today.

KHAJA MUNAWARUDDIN AHMED M.C.A., Principal

He was born on 22 January, 1973. A man of boundless energy and dynamism, with a taste for challenging assignments. He started his teaching career when he was in BSc (MPC) II year by teaching Maths to school students.

After the completion of Graduation, took maths to SSC and Intermediate Students. He handled many successful batches. He completed his Master's in Computers (MCA) from University PG College, Karimnagar which is presently called Satavahana University.

He joined as a Assistant Professor in the same College and worked as the Incharge of Department of Computer Science for 8 years. He took classes for MCA, MSc and MBA Students and handled many subjects like Operations Research, Discrete Mathematics Computer Organization, Software Engineering, DBMS, etc.

He went to USA in 2005 and worked there in 3core Systems Inc, for 5 years as a SAP ABAP HR Consultant. He returned back to India in 2010 and established the Nawab's International School (NIS) with Mr. Mohammed Fasiuddin, the Chairman. Today in such a very short span of time the Nawab's has earned a solid reputation and has carved a niche in the educational segment.

His advice to staff : we all have dreams. But in order to make dreams into reality, it takes an awful lot of determination, dedication, self-discipline and effort. Teamwork is the ability to work together toward a common vision. The ability to direct individual accomplishments towards organizational objectives. It is the fuel that allows common people to attain uncommon results.

OUR SCHOOL

NAWAB'S INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL has been established with the sole purpose of providing quality modern education in an Islamic Environment. The inspiring force behind establishing of this School is the total dedication, international exposure and commitment by the founders. We strive to foster a vibrant environment which ensures practice of Islamic principles at all levels, and promotes cultural diversity, intellectual curiosity, creativity, entrepreneurship, leadership qualities, and service to humanity at large.

Nawab's International School strives to provide an environment, which promotes intellectual, spiritual, emotional, physical, and social development. This entire process is driven with the close support and partnership of the parents. We recognize that, within Islamic doctrines, a child's first teachers are his/her parents and the second set is his/her teachers. Through the mutual efforts of these two major pillars in a child's life, we hope to enrich the developmental process of each student.

Vision:

Our vision is to produce professionally successful and well-rounded individuals, who are enriched with knowledge, inspired to excellence, and committed to the betterment of family, community and humanity.

Mission:

Our mission is to provide excellent education in an atmosphere of faith, and to prepare students to be life-long learners and contributing members of society.
